CO-OPERATIVE BANK ADVERTISING.

Addressing the North Dakota Bankers' Association recently at Bismarck, N. D., Edwin Bird Wilson, manager of the advertising department of the Bankers Trust Company of New York, advanced the proposition that, in view of the similarity of services, banks would do well to unite by communities for advertising. Mr. Wilson amplified his views in part as follows:

"Bankers, if they would be in harmony with the best thoughts of the present day, with the thought which makes for solidarity within the nation and between nations, must consider their duty toward the community, while considering their own business interests. It is the duty of bankers and particularly of trust company bankers, to point out to the people the dangers of individual trusteeship, and the advantages offered by the incorporated trustee."

"Bankers should protect the public by publicity of the right sort against the insidious appeal of unscrupulous promoters of brass-edged securities; should try to divert into legitimate channels of trade the millions of dollars which annually go into the treasuries of the finance pirates, who prey on widows and orphans, and sometimes on those who ought to know better than be caught by offers of seventy per cent dividends. Bankers owe to their towns and cities, owe it to the legitimate business of this country, owe it to the commerce of the world to encourage the people to invest their money in legitimate enterprises and to keep it away from the fraudulent schemes."

"Out of the general ideas of co-operation and mutual interests which are now so pronounced among the thoughtful people comes another broad principle of bank and trust advertising. I refer to the desirability of community or group advertising."

"I hold with many thoughtful bankers and bank advertising men who have a strong conviction that the best advertising of banks and trust companies has not yet been done, that the separate competitive efforts at advertising by banks and trust companies is superficial and not fundamental. Many of us believe that what is needed in bank and trust company advertising more than anything else is co-operation by suitable groups of banking institutions in a campaign of publicity, designed thoroughly to inform all classes and conditions of people of the usefulness of banking institutions, and of the duty which the people owe to the business world of bringing their surplus moneys into the storehouse of capital for the common good."

Cannot Praise Them Enough. Many sick and tired women, with aches and pains, sore muscles, and stiff joints, do not know that their kidneys are out of order. Mrs. A.G. Wells, Box 90, Route 5, Rocky Mount, N.C., writes: "I am talking Foley Kidney Pills and cannot praise them enough for the wonderful benefit I derived in such a short while." Sold everywhere.

SPRAYING FRUIT TREES.

(By James L. Montague, County Farm Demonstrator)

The pruning season is with us, and the next orchard work to be done is that of spraying.

Sprays, when properly applied, kill insects and destroy fungous diseases. The most common insects we have to combat are San Jose Scale and the codling moth or apple worm. The sprays generally used for San Jose Scale are scalecide and lime sulfur, which are applied during the dormant season.

In addition to killing scale lime sulfur also prevents several fungus diseases and cleanses the bark of the trees. Sprays for scale are applied just before the buds swell. The manufactured lime sulfur is now used almost universally. It is standardized, and can always be depended upon, whereas the homemade spray is often a failure, and so disheartens a

When the nerves go wrong, the first place you feel it is generally in the stomach. The appetite goes bad, the food you eat either does not agree with you, or does no good. A general feeling of listlessness and don't-care-a-hand comes over you. You toss about in bed and wake up unrefreshed and without ambition to go at the day's work with the old time vim. If these symptoms are neglected serious complications may arise. The victim either grows pale and listless or nervous and unstrung. The smallest trivial things upset you and you are generally on the ragged edge all the time. The best method of handling cases of this kind is to remove the cause of the trouble. A preventative rather than a cure is the result you wish and the following has been highly recommended.

Go to Hawkins' Pharmacy and secure an inexpensive package of the new Vito-Nux tablets, take one of these tablets at meal times and one on going to bed. Do this regularly until the entire fifty cent box is gone which will last ten days.

You will be surprised how quickly they soothe the nerves, straighten out the digestive machinery and bring the old vim and vigor to the overworked system. Of course when you go about your work with a new ambition and buoyed up feelings and why with such an inexpensive ten days treatment available may go about feeling badly is a mystery.

The manufacturer of Vito-Nux tablets guarantees that you will be satisfied or your money refunded and this carefully prepared combination of medicinal elements is guaranteed to bring results satisfactory to you or your money cheerfully refunded. Vito-Nux may only be purchased in this vicinity through Hawkins' Pharmacy. 50c per package.

W. R. GRAHAM EXPIRES AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

"The Independent," a newspaper published at Hamilton, London county, had the following in a recent issue: It is with profound regret that we chronicle the death of Mr. William R. Graham, which occurred at his home about a mile east of this town, at 1 o'clock January 28th. He had been in declining health for some time, and having consulted well known specialists, without finding relief, he, at the advice of his family physician, Dr. Claggett, went to Garfield Hospital in Washington, D. C., where an operation was performed on him on the 24th of last April for cancer of the stomach. The disease had made such ravages that the surgeons could afford only a temporary betterment of his condition.

Mr. Graham was a native of Tazewell county, and was in the 60th year of his age. On coming to Loudoun some 10 or 12 years ago he purchased the home farm of the late Charles C. Mercier, (one of the best in this section) upon which he had since resided. Later he purchased the Pussey farm near Waterford, and was extensively engaged in stock raising and agricultural pursuits. He was a man of fine judgment, great energy and will power, and possessed a well-cultivated mind that had been stored with a fund of practical information. He was for a number of years a member of the Presbyterian church and also a member of the Hamilton Lodge A. F. & A. M.

Before leaving Tazewell, Mr. Graham was, for a term or more, deputy clerk of the county court.

He is survived by his wife and eight children—Charles, Samuel and Wade and Misses Mary, Annie, Ollie, Ossie, and Margaret Lee Graham.

His funeral took place from his late home, Rev. J. M. Holliday, assisted by Rev. Mr. Eutsler, officiating.

The burial was in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery. The ceremonies at the grave were in charge of the Hamilton Lodge of Masons.

NO REASON FORTHCOMING.

(Robert B. Patton, in "The National Daily.")

For ten years the publisher of the Clinch Valley News, Tazewell, Va., has made a standing offer through the columns of his paper to pay a liberal cash reward for one good reason for the existence of the saloon. After a decade the News man still has his money. The silence of the wets is positively oppressive. The reason why there is no good reason for the existence of the saloon has been given is, there is NO good reason to be given—absolutely none.

All the "Antinomies" of Emmanuel Kant are utterly incompetent to enable the saloon sponsors to conjure up ONE sufficient reason for the malodorous booze joint.

Their silence in reference to the News offer is a confession that the saloon is indefensible. Neither the wet speakers nor organs ever attempt to defend the saloon per se. To do so would be akin to rolling up the "Seven trenches of Cologne" or opening up the bottomless pit.

There are countless valid reasons for the non-existence of the saloon. It pauperizes helpless childhood and robs womanhood of love, honor, and protection. It is a drunkard factory, a breaker-up of homes, an inciter of crime, an ally of the white slave, a destroyer of virtue and thrift, a corrupter of politics, a plunderer of legitimate business, a producer of insanity, epilepsy and idiocy, a breeder of lums and thugs and a pander to every form of vice.

The saloon does not deserve to exist and will not be tolerated much longer.

Has Eight Children.

Mrs. P. Rehkamp, 2404 Herman st., Covington, Ky., writes: "I have been using Foley's Honey and Tar for nearly two years and can find no better cough syrup. I have eight children and give it to all of them. They were subject to croup from babies on." It is a safe and reliable medicine." Sold everywhere.

Now I am well of indigestion and have no rheumatism. My appetite is very good and I feel like a new man. I suffered from catarrh of the head so bad that I was almost deaf. TWELVE YEARS OF FAILING HEALTH

Brought to Happy End.—Says the People in Three Counties Know What Cardui Did For Her.

Weaver, N. C.—Mrs. Abigail Hampton, of this place, says about 12 years ago she began to take Cardui after having been in failing health for 12 years, during which time she had to take her bed four days out of each month, and suffered agony; that the doctors told her she must have female trouble and gave her medicine which did her no good and finally insisted on her going to the hospital for treatment.

She goes on to say: "I am a large woman, and my ordinary weight, 160 pounds, went down to 135. I got so bad I just dragged around and could scarcely sit up. My neighbors all thought I was going to die and would say I couldn't live long. My little daughter thought the same."

My husband and friends urged me to try Cardui, and he bought me some of it. I began feeling better as soon as I began taking it, and I steadily improved until I was well and strong. I have my garden, do my housework, and have cooked for twenty boarders at one time. Am a strong, healthy woman, permanently cured by Cardui. My husband and I can't say enough for Cardui. The people in three counties know what this medicine has done for me, for neither I nor my husband cease praising it."

Cardui is for sale at all druggists with full directions for use. Try it.
